

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT WORKER

RAF Honington & Stanton

We are seeking a passionate and creative Community Engagement Worker to join our team at RAF Honington and the nearby community of Stanton.

This exciting new post will play a key part in strengthening the relationship between the RAF Honington Chaplaincy, the Methodist Church, and the local community. The successful candidate will build bridges between military personnel, their families, veterans, and the wider Christian community – fostering belonging, faith exploration, and inclusive engagement.

Key Responsibilities include:

- Supporting chaplaincy activities at RAF Honington, including Messy Church and seasonal celebrations.
- Developing midweek family events to strengthen community bonds.
- Helping establish café-style worship and community gatherings in Stanton.
- Creating Christian holiday clubs during Easter and summer.
- Encouraging collaboration between the military community and local churches.

Salary £32,853 per annum.

35 hours per week, of which 10 hours at the Byways NPNP project and 25 at RAF Honington. Permanent position dependent on continuing funding, initially identified for 5 years.

A satisfactory enhanced disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service will be required.

This role has an occupational requirement to be a practising Christian in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.
