

Missional Repurposing and Property Manager Central Norfolk Circuit

The Central Norfolk Circuit is seeking to appoint a Property Manager for Churches, Manses and other property within the Circuit with the focus on missional repurposing. The Central Norfolk Circuit stretches from Great Ellingham in the south to Blakeney in the north and covers a great diversity of Methodist venues from rural inland villages to market towns and further to popular coastal locations. The churches are steeped in history, well established in the community and provide exciting opportunities for new and visionary missional purposes.

This post will be to assist the Circuit Leadership Team in managing the processes of future use whether that be sale, rental or re-invention and will encompass all aspects of property management.

Salary £20 per hour for a part time position of 15 hours per week.

We are flexible about the particular hours worked during the week. The appointment will be home-based with an expectation of extensive travel around the Central Norfolk Circuit area.

Travel costs that arise in the role will be reimbursed. Some evening work for meetings may be required.

A full list of responsibilities is available on request in our application pack.

A satisfactory disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service will be required.
